PRELIMINARY PAVING WORK BEGUN MONDAY

CONSTRUCTION STARTS SOON
SAY'S HARRISON

Twelve Blocks to Be Paved Within City; Three Blocks Near The Square

The work of paving 12 city blocks in Canyon will be rushed to completion as soon as possible, contractor Claude Harrison states. Preliminary work of the engineer was begun early Monday morning.

Work of construction will begin just as soon as the work of the engineer is completed. The seventh unit of the paving which is on Third avenue between the west property line of State Street, (24th street) to the east property line of the present paving on Third avenue, will not be paved until the rest is completed. That unit is the paving through the new addition which was opened recently, made possible by the removal of the stock pens.

Under the agreement made in the contract between Mr. Harrison and the City Commission the paving is to be completed within 90 working days after actual construction is begun.

Three blocks of the paving will be near the square. The block on the northwest corner of the square running north by the Miller Lybrand company, the block on the southwest corner of the square running south by the Imperial Chevrolet company and the block on the southeast corner of the square running south by the Foxworth-Galbraith lumber company will be paved.

These streets on both the east and the west side of the campus of the college will be paved. These are Twenty-fourth and Twenty-sixth streets. There are two blocks on each street to be paved. Second avenue will be paved between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-third streets.

Besides the three blocks of the seventh unit of paving on Third avenue, the block between twenty-fourth and Twenty-third streets will also be paved.

The estimated cost of the 12 blocks is more than $32,000. The cost of the city's part of the paving is expected to be cared for out of the 1930 taxes, thus eliminating either the calling of a bond issue or the issuing of emergency warrants to meet the cost. The amount of the paving affecting the college has already been cared for by an appropriation by the state legislature.

The paving has been needed for a long time and the announcement that the work will begin at once is gladly received by Canyon citizens. A petition received almost universal endorsement was circulated recently asking that the City take action toward the paving of the various blocks of streets.

Country Club Place Fish in Lake Recently

A Shipment of 2,000 bass from the state fish hatcheries was received and placed in the lake of the Canyon Country club a few days ago according to S. H. Condon, who is a member of the committee of the club in charge of stocking the lake with fish.

A shipment of between 3,000 and 4,000 will be received from the Federal government fish hatcheries in August or September, Mr. Condon states.

Considerable improvement is being made in the dam at the lake by reinforcing the old dam. Also small dams have been made along the creek making the entire 2 miles of creek owned by the club good fishing waters.

During the time that he has served in the State Senate he has been active in the constructive measures passed by that body. He has been active in his support of measures which have been beneficial to West Texas.

"I have watched with much interest the development of the Panhandle section, and have taken a particular interest in the state's educational institutions in this section. "I was glad to actively aid Senator Small in the last session of the legislature in passing his riverbed bills and followed him in voting for these bills and passing them over the governor's veto. I thought these bills but common honesty. They merely required the state to do justice by the purchasers of its land, as the state requires individuals to do toward each other."

Senator Witt made a short talk here late Monday afternoon following the address of Ross Sterling, candidate for governor. He was introduced by Representative Clyde W. Warwick.

EDGAR WITT

OVER 5,000 PASS THROUGH GATES TO SEE CANYONS

PEOPLE FROM MANY STATES
VIEW CANYONS.

Special Trip Arouses Much Interest in Canyons as State Park.

More than 5,000 persons, including many from 21 states other than Texas and the countries of Mexico and Canada, viewed the scenic wonders of the Palo Duro Canyons Sunday. The canyons were opened through the efforts of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, at points which have been closed to the public in recent months.

The success of the tour of the canyons went far beyond the expectations of the organization when original plans were made. The thousands from all sections of the Panhandle and many other points in Texas saw a vision of the possibility for a state park in the canyons, which could not have been presented to them in any other manner. There is no doubt but that more interest was aroused in the sightseeing excursion Sunday than in all combined projects during the past few years.

Gates at the old JA ranch were opened at 10 o'clock allowing visitors to view the beauty of the Lighthouse canyons until 1 o'clock.

As the cars entered the gates the visitors were counted and their place of residence was learned by members of the Chamber of Commerce. By noon Sunday 1,433 cars carrying 5,349 people had passed through the gates. It is estimated that almost 1,000 more people joined the group in the afternoon.

Members of Company F of the 142nd Infantry of the National Guard and members of the local troop of Boy Scouts aided in directing the big crowds. Advance preparations were made by the Chamber of Commerce in order to avoid accidents and keep anyone from becoming lost. Local physicians were kept in readiness to care for any injuries, but so far as it was learned there were no accidents of any kind. No one was allowed to enter the canyons at the Light-

Warned Against Trash on Roads

Dumping of trash of any kind of refuse on roads or highways is forbidden by state law, and violators will be punished, is the warning issued by the Commissioners Court Tuesday.

Members of the Court state that in many parts of the county old cans, iron, automobiles, etc., are being piled along the highways. This makes road work very difficult, and costly to car owners when these things are dragged into the road bed to cause punctures. Sometimes these things are carelessly thrown by the side of the roads, but more often they have been piled there by persons who do not wish to go to the trouble of making a trip to the dump grounds.

All citizens are urged to report to the commissioners any cases of dumping trash along the roadways which they observe.

Absentee Votes Point to Heavy Poll in Primary

If the absentee voting is to be taken as an indication of the voting in the primary July 26th, Randall county will cast the heaviest vote in its history.

Ross Sterling, candidate for Governor of Texas, spoke at the Court House Monday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock for a few minutes. He was not scheduled for a speech here, but wanted to meet as many voters as possible. Finding nearly a hundred men awaiting him at the court house, he agreed to talk for a few minutes.

Mr. Sterling launched into his highway proposal of issuing bonds by the state in order to finance the state highway program. He maintained that the state highway commission did not have the funds to build a state highway system out of the gasoline tax, as is being advocated, but described his plan as being the only practical one proposed by any candidate for governor.

Cecil Storey in Short Talk Tuesday At the College

Cecil Storey of Vernon, candidate for Attorney General, was here Tuesday and spoke at the chapel period of the College. Owing to the short time he had in the city, Mr. Storey was unable to come to the business section of Canyon and meet the voters.

He is making from four to five towns daily, making as many speeches and seeing as many voters as possible before the primary on July 26th.

Governor Moody injected fire into the Attorney General's race Monday by charging that Storey was a product of Jim Ferguson and was being supported by Ferguson. This charge is hotly denied by Storey.

Cecil Storey has served four terms as a member of the House of Representatives, and is one of the best known lawyers in Northwest Texas.

Company F. About Ready to Leave For Annual Camp

Company F is a worth while institution for the city. There is a annual payroll of more than $8,000, which is distributed among the young men of the city. Captain Lockhart is appreciative of the interest shown by the business men of the National Guard company, but more interest will be manifested when the real worth of the company is realized.

Funds will be solicited before the Company leaves to increase the mess of the company while at camp. Canyon people have always responded very liberally to this fund in order to enable the boys to have extra eats while at camp, other than that furnished on the regular army bill of fare.

The itinerary of the second day will include a trip to Shamrock and vicinity. Jake Hess and R. T. Alexander will pilot the motorcade during the day. The motorcade will spend the night at Canadian. Leaving Canadian Wednesday morning, July 23, B. F. Talley will pilot the motorcade to Pampa, where P. J. Pronger will take charge. Herds in the vicinity of Stratford and Dalhart will be visited as a concluding part of the trip.

Coach Brady Takes Look at Eagles in Visit Here Monday

Coach W. Edgar Brady and wife were here Monday looking for an apartment. They will return about the 15th of August to make their home.

Coach Brady will be head coach of the Canyon Eagles next year. While here he talked with a number of the high school boys in order to get a line-up of the material available for the coming year. He expressed great pleasure in meeting so many of the boys.

Practice will start as soon as Mr. Brady arrives in Canyon, in order that the teams will be in shape for the first game of the season with Happy, which will be played the first week of school.

Second Expenses Of Candidates to Be Filed Today

Today is the final day for the candidates to file their second expense account in the primary according to Mrs. Berl E. Mayfield, County clerk. She states that the statement of expenses according to the law, must be filed not more than 12 days and not less than 8 days before the election. The third expense account must be filed not later than 10 days following the election.

The penalty for a candidate to fail to file an expense account will be the removal of his name from the ballot through the filing of court proceedings by any qualified voter in the county.

JUDGE GOUGH HERE

Judge L. Gough of Amarillo was in the city Thursday on business. He is organizer for the Wheat Growers Association, and interested in trying to get the farmers to pool their wheat in order to secure better prices.

Senator Clint C. Small will speak in Canyon Saturday morning at 9:00 o'clock. He will be in the city only thirty minutes as he has a crowded schedule to fill during the final week of the campaign, and his stay must be brief.

Arrangements as completed this morning call for an informal reception of the Senator when he arrives here Saturday morning with a brief introduction, so as to give him as much time as possible to speak.

The meeting will be on the court house lawn, if the weather is favorable, in order that as many as possible may see and hear Senator Small.

No particular demonstration is being planned for Senator Small Saturday morning. The time of his stay in Canyon is so short that it was thought best to allow him all of the thirty minutes in which to greet old friends, and to make as many new ones as possible. Voters in Canyon are urged to be at the court house a few minutes before 9:30 o'clock. It is expected that a large number of farmers will be in the city at that hour in order to meet and see Senator Small.

It is generally estimated that Senator Small will receive the almost solid support of Randall county voters, but the meeting here Saturday morning is for the purpose of allowing the voters who are not acquainted with the Senator to meet him and to become better acquainted with him.

Business activities will be suspended in Canyon during the half hour of Senator Small's stay so that every business person may be free to be on the court house lawn for that thirty minutes.

Governor Moody injected fire into the Attorney General's race Monday by charging that Storey was a product of Jim Ferguson and was being supported by Ferguson. This charge is hotly denied by Storey.

Cecil Storey has served four terms as a member of the House of Representatives, and is one of the best known lawyers in Northwest Texas.

Company F. About Ready to Leave For Annual Camp

Final arrangements are being made by Company F to leave for the annual encampment at Palacios on August 1st, stated Captain W. E. Lockhart yesterday.

Captain Lockhart stated that his company has only two vacancies, which will likely be filled before the company entrains. Forty men have secured leaves from their work to attend camp.

Company F is a worth while institution for the city. There is an annual payroll of more than $8,000, which is distributed among the young men of the city. Captain Lockhart is appreciative of the interest shown by the business men of the National Guard company, but more interest will be manifested when the real worth of the company is realized.

Funds will be solicited before the company leaves to increase the mess of the company while at camp. Canyon people have always responded very liberally to this fund in order to enable the boys to have extra eats while at camp, other than that furnished on the regular army bill of fare.

Panhandle Man Brings Campaign to Home District—Great Crowds are Expected in Canyon Saturday.

5 Day Motorcade Is Planned For Cattle Breeders

Members of the Panhandle Hereford Breeders Association have completed plans for a four day motorcade over the Panhandle to view the prominent Hereford herds.

The motorcade will leave Amarillo on the morning of July 21st and will be piloted by D. L. McDonald. Herds in the vicinity of Canyon, Tulla, Dimmitt and Hereford will be visited. The day will be concluded with a fish fry at Tom Ivey's lake.

The itinerary of the second day will include a trip to Shamrock and vicinity. Jake Hess and R. T. Alexander will pilot the motorcade during the day. The motorcade will spend the night at Canadian. Leaving Canadian Wednesday morning, July 23, B. F. Talley will pilot the motorcade to Pampa, where P. J. Pronger will take charge. Herds in the vicinity of Stratford and Dalhart will be visited as a concluding part of the trip.

Coach Brady Takes Look at Eagles in Visit Here Monday

Coach W. Edgar Brady and wife were here Monday looking for an apartment. They will return about the 15th of August to make their home.

Coach Brady will be head coach of the Canyon Eagles next year. While here he talked with a number of the high school boys in order to get a line-up of the material available for the coming year. He expressed great pleasure in meeting so many of the boys.

Practice will start as soon as Mr. Brady arrives in Canyon, in order that the teams will be in shape for the first game of the season with Happy, which will be played the first week of school.

Coach Brady was a schoolmate of Jake Spann, Eagle coach for three years, and is highly pleased with Canyon and the outlook for athletics here.

Drawing Papers on the Hiway Routing

Judge Perry Pearson of Amarillo was employed Monday by the commissioners court to get up the papers for the right-of-way on the new highway running west from Canyon to the county line. Mr. Pearson handled this work for Randall county on the highway north from Canyon.

The jury of view was not named this week by the commissioners court, but this will be attended to when the papers have been completed by Judge Pearson.

Second Expenses Of Candidates to Be Filed Today

Today is the final day for the candidates to file their second expense account in the primary according to Mrs. Berl E. Mayfield, County clerk. She states that the statement of expenses according to the law, must be filed not more than 12 days and not less than 8 days before the election. The third expense account must be filed not later than 10 days following the election.

The penalty for a candidate to fail to file an expense account will be the removal of his name from the ballot through the filing of court proceedings by any qualified voter in the county.

JUDGE GOUGH HERE

Judge L. Gough of Amarillo was in the city Thursday on business. He is organizer for the Wheat Growers Association, and interested in trying to get the farmers to pool their wheat in order to secure better prices.

Senator Clint C. Small will speak in Canyon Saturday morning at 9:00 o'clock. He will be in the city only thirty minutes as he has a crowded schedule to fill during the final week of the campaign, and his stay must be brief.

Arrangements as completed this morning call for an informal reception of the Senator when he arrives here Saturday morning with a brief introduction, so as to give him as much time as possible to speak.

The meeting will be on the court house lawn, if the weather is favorable, in order that as many as possible may see and hear Senator Small.

No particular demonstration is being planned for Senator Small Saturday morning. The time of his stay in Canyon is so short that it was thought best to allow him all of the thirty minutes in which to greet old friends, and to make as many new ones as possible. Voters in Canyon are urged to be at the court house a few minutes before 9:30 o'clock. It is expected that a large number of farmers will be in the city at that hour in order to meet and see Senator Small.

It is generally estimated that Senator Small will receive the almost solid support of Randall county voters, but the meeting here Saturday morning is for the purpose of allowing the voters who are not acquainted with the Senator to meet him and to become better acquainted with him.

Business activities will be suspended in Canyon during the half hour of Senator Small's stay so that every business person may be free to be on the court house lawn for that thirty minutes.

Hill Presents W. T. Budget to New Education Board

President J. A. Hill is in Austin this week appearing before the Board of Education to present the budget for W. T. This is a new board, and the first time it has ever functioned in passing upon the budgets of the various colleges of the state. A complete discussion of the courses of study, and finances needed for the institutions will be participated in by the presidents and members of the new board.

The budget for W. T. has been recommended by the Board of Regents, and has been given a hearing by the Board of Control. After the Board of Education passes upon the budget it will be ready to print and distribute to the members of the legislature for the meeting of that body in January.

Dairy Directors In Meeting Here

Plans were made Saturday at the meeting of the board of directors of the Randall County Dairymen's Association in the county agent's office, to co-operate with the City of Amarillo in entertaining the Texas Sanitarians convention there in August.

The program of the last day of convention on August 28 will be of special interest to the dairymen and will deal with the problems of sanitation in connection with the production and distribution of milk. Dr. E. W. Little of Amarillo met with the board of directors.

THE JULY PRIMARY

This Monday morning, we take our typewriter in hand to make the bi-annual review of the political situation in Texas. This year sees a little more complex situation than usual. There are more good and capable candidates offering for state office than usual, and when the voter goes to use his black pencil, he will be confronted with the task of making a choice between many prominent people, any one of whom probably would ably serve the taxpayers of the state.

So far as we are concerned, there is no doubt about the results of the race for United States Senator. We are for Morris Sheppard, not because we are especially fond of him, but because we do not care for his opponents. C. A. Mitchner, one opponent, is unknown; Robert Lee Henry, the other opponent, is a rabid anti and seeks to repeal the 18th amendment. Texas is not ready to turn the prohibition question back to the wets. Sometimes the pros get tired of the way prohibition has turned out, but nevertheless, we are all convinced that the wets would not do as good a job of it as the pros have been doing.

In the Governor's race, West Texas voters will have little difficulty in deciding. We are not fighting any candidate, but we are supporting Senator Clint Small simply because we believe him to be the best qualified man in the race. He is our friend and neighbor; a Pan-handle product; a real statesman, and will represent the varied interests of this big state. He belongs to no clique, clan, or organization which seeks in a selfish manner to hamper the growth of the state for the benefit of any organization, section, or class. He stands for Texas as a whole, rather than from a selfish sectional standpoint.

For Lieutenant Governor we are going to support Edgar Witt of Waco. He is a state senator, and has liberal views upon state policies. J. D. Parnell of Wichita Falls and H. L. Darwin of Lamar are both former senators. We believe that Witt will more clearly represent all interests of the state and will work better with Governor Clint Small in the program for state wide development.

West Texas has three men in the race for attorney general; Jimmie Allred of Wichita Falls, Cecil Storey of Vernon and Robert Lee Bobbitt of Webb county. Allred came mighty near being elected four years ago, being barely nosed out by Claude Pollard. He is a fast campaigner. It is going to be hard for us to choose between two good personal friends—Cecil Storey and Bob Bobbitt. Both have been members of the House of Representatives; Bobbitt being Speaker in the 39th Legislature. Both of them are capable and able lawyers, and either will serve the state with honor and dignity. Bobbitt has the advantage of being the present Attorney General, having been appointed for the unexpired term when Claude Pollard resigned. Bobbitt probably has a more active following than Storey and both will have a job on hand if they nose out Jimmie Allred.

For State Comptroller we shall support another good West Texan, George Sheppard of Nolan county. Sheppard took over the duties of Comptroller when Terrell was forced to resign by the legislature investigating Sheppard's made good in the Comptroller's office; is thoroughly honest; and should be elected.

We choose to support John E. Davis of Dallas county for state treasurer. Mr. Davis is from Mesquite, a small town in Dallas county. He is a newspaper publisher, and has served 19 years in the House of Representatives. He is known as the watchdog of the treasury, and has fought the increase cost of government "tooth and nail." He will run the office of state treasurer in the most economical manner, and will see that no one cashes a state warrant who is not entitled to the money.

S. M. N. Marrs has no opposition as state superintendent of public instruction. Every session of the legislature has cussed and discussed Marrs, and he has been fought fairly and foully at every turn of the road—but always manages to win out. A lot of school men wanted to oppose Mr. Marrs, but backed out at the last minute.

We shall support A. H. King of Throckmorton as commissioner of Agriculture. We served with him in the House of Representatives. He is a farmer of wide experience. He knows West Texas; knows state government, and will run the office on the most economical basis.

J. H. Walker is our choice for Commissioner of the General Land office. He has been connected with the office for more than 20 years. He resigned as chief clerk to accept the office at a reduction of $800 per year in salary. This office is very important. It deals with West Texas lands, school lands, and valuable oil lands belonging to the University of Texas. The commissioner is in a position to be a real public servant, or could greatly injure the state in dealing with public land problems. Mr. Walker knows the problems of the office, and will do the duties in a capable manner.

We have three good friends running for railroad commissioner—Pat M. Neff, W. Gregory Hatcher, and Senator Nat Patton. It would seem that the fight will be between Neff and Hatcher. Both are very active in the campaign, and both have organizations. Hatcher is retiring from the state treasurer's office where he has served for six years. This gives him a wide acquaintance all over the state. Neff was for four years governor of Texas, and was appointed to the railroad commission at the death of Clarence Gilmore. Both are claim the support of the railroad men of the state and the labor vote. Pat Neff is a well likeable man, is a good campaigner, and we will not be surprised to see him elected in the first primary.

For chief justice of the supreme court, Judge C. M. Cureton is up for re-election, and is opposed by Covey C. Thomas of LaSalle. Cureton is an able campaigner and politician. He has the advantage because his opponent is not so well known, although recommended as an able lawyer.

Judge O. S. Lattimore is up for re-election to the court of criminal appeals. He is opposed by a West Texan, James A. Stephens of Knox county. Judge Lattimore is an able jurist, and it is said that this court is the most prompt of any in the state.

Marvin Jones, congressman of this district, is opposed by James O. Cade, also of Amarillo. Cade has been making a rather intensive canvass of the district while Mr. Jones was attending the special session of congress. Just what support Cade has gathered has not been revealed at this time. Marvin Jones has served this district well for several terms. It takes a man two or three terms to get a toe hold in Washington, and for that reason Cade is at a disadvantage. When the re-districting bill is passed at the close of the present census, West Texas will gain two new congressmen. Many voters figure that two years hence will be plenty of time to think about making a change, if they decide to make a change in congress.

Randall county voters are well acquainted, personally with the district and county candidates. Most all of them have made personal solicitation among the voters, and have met a majority of the voters of the county. Local candidates have this decided advantage over state-wide candidates, or candidates from the large districts. The News would not be so presumptuous as to recommend to the voters of this county whom they should select as local officers during the coming term. There are candidates well qualified asking for every office, and it is the duty of the voters to select the ones whom they believe to be the best qualified, regardless of personal feelings in the matter.

The main thing right now is for every voter to make up his mind to vote on July 26th. It is said that aside from the Governor's race, there is little interest shown in the campaign in this county. Randall is no different from many other counties of the state. But the matter of selecting officials is of such vast importance that every voter should make up his mind right now to be sure to vote July 26th.

Times have changed. New London, Conn. used to be a long way from Canyon and it would take two weeks to get repairs from the factory there for our big Optimus press. A letter went from Canyon on Tuesday night of last week by air mail; the repairs arrived in Canyon Sunday morning via air mail. How's that?

A man here from Dallas Monday states that Clint Small is by far the leader in the campaign for Governor. He travels all over North and West Texas, and believes that Clint Small is certain to go into the second primary; and will defeat any other candidate who reaches the second primary. West Texans, let's vote for our friend and neighbor.

THE TARIFF AND POLITICS

President Hoover, on April 16, 1929, more than a year ago, asked congress to make some limited changes in the tariff law, especially for the protection of agriculture and as a part of his program on farm relief. The response of congress was to throw the whole subject of the tariff wide open and inject the tariff issue again into national politics.

The senate seized upon this opportunity to make another attempt to arrogate all governmental power to itself and to make the president a rubber stamp. The senate coalition undertook to write into the tariff law a provision that all decisions of the tariff commission should be subject to affirmation by congress. Such a procedure would keep the tariff to the front, a political issue all the time, at every session of congress. What the president specifically asked for in this respect was a simplification of the tariff commission provisions of the law, so that re-adjustments in rates could be made with less delay than now is the case. The senate's plan would have resulted in immensely longer delays and would effectually have ruined all the efforts of leaders of both major parties in the past 10 years to put tariff-making on a scientific basis.

The senate also inserted into the tariff bill a provision for a rebate on exported farm products.

The house of representatives stood fast against those two provisions of the senate, and the senate has finally yielded on both points. It was not statesmanship entirely, however, that dictated the attitude of the house. It is largely politics in the simple, plain sense of the word. Every member of congress comes up for re-election this year. Every member has got to explain to his constituents how come some other part of the country got more out of the tariff bill than did his own district. For the tariff is, after all, a local issue; it is bound up in sectionalism and selfish interests, and one result of all the agitation on the subject in congress during the past year has been to increase sectional bitterness to a degree we have not known in America for decades. The only convincing answer any member who voted for the tariff bill

For Commissioner of Agriculture

A. H. King of Throckmorton, Throckmorton County, Texas

can make, when the schedules unsatisfactory to his constituency are criticized, is that the rates in the bill are not permanent. The tariff commission and the president can change the rates whenever it is shown that they should be changed in the interest of international parity. Nobody, broadly speaking, is satisfied with the rates in the bill itself, but everybody who believes that a scientific readjustment of the rates by an expert tariff commission is the proper way to handle the tariff question will accept the bill, whatever the defects, so long as it has that provision of flexibility in it. It is perhaps too much to hope that this will be the end of congressional tariff making, but the country would be better off if that proved true.

SAYS FEW CENTS WILL SAVE STAINS FROM COLD DRINKS

With the cold drink season at hand, declares a household editor, furniture faces its greatest danger from spots. It may be protected at a nominal cost, the article adds.

"The gracious hostess serving iced drinks," continues the writer, "leaves the guest the choice of holding onto the glass until her fingers freeze to it, or putting it down on an adjacent table. As a result, most of the tables in the living rooms of the land are afflicted with ring-blight."

"Spot removing is not exactly a sport, so it is with glee that women see in the shops, small, highly decorated cardboard discs, prepared in packages. The decorated top of the discs are absorbent and takes care of the inevitable moisture that collects on the outside of the glass and runs down the sides. The bottoms are non absorbent and will not let the moisture through. They may be dried out and used over and over again."

During nine months federal taxes on tobacco amounted to more than $333,071,486. So it seems that some of the money that "goes up in smoke" finds a resting place at Washington.

Business is not so booming over the United States, regardless of what the prosperity bugs say. Any reader doubting this statement will please pay his subscription today.

The tariff commission and the president can change the rates whenever it is shown that they should be changed in the interest of international parity. Nobody, broadly speaking, is satisfied with the rates in the bill itself; but everybody who believes that a scientific readjustment of the rates by an expert tariff commission is the proper way to handle the tariff question will accept the bill, whatever the defects, so long as it has that provision of flexibility in it.

It is perhaps too much to hope that this will be the end of congressional tariff making, but the country would be better off if that proved true.

SAYS FEW CENTS WILL SAVE STAINS FROM COLD DRINKS

With the cold drink season at hand, declares a household editor, furniture faces its greatest danger from spots. It may be protected at a nominal cost, the article adds. "The gracious hostess serving iced drinks," continues the writer, "leaves the guest the choice of holding onto the glass until her fingers freeze to it, or putting it down on an adjacent table. As a result, most of the tables in the living rooms of the land are afflicted with ring-blight."

"Spot removing is not exactly a sport, so it is with glee that women see in the shops, small, highly decorated cardboard discs, prepared in packages. The decorated top of the discs are absorbent and takes care of the inevitable moisture that collects on the outside of the glass and runs down the sides. The bottoms are non absorbent and will not let the moisture through. They may be dried out and used over and over again."

During nine months federal taxes on tobacco amounted to more than $333,071,486. So it seems that some of the money that "roes up in smoke" finds a resting place at Washington.

Business is not so booming over the United States, regardless of what the prosperity bugs say. Any reader doubting this statement will please pay his subscription today.

Miss Nell Parmer and Mr. E. C. Soll are Wed Thursday

Among the outstanding events of this month was the marriage of Miss Nell Parmer of this city to Mr. Fred H. Soll of Tipton, Iowa, which took place Thursday afternoon at 6 o'clock at the home of Dr. G. S. Slover, 2218 Washington Street, Amarillo, with Dr. Slover officiating. Quite unusual was the fact that the ceremony took place on the same date, July 10, as the wedding anniversary of the bride's parents and also as that of her sister, Mrs. S. H. Condon, of Canyon.

Those who witnessed the ceremony were the bride's father, W. B. Parmer of Hereford; her brother, Buford Parmer and Mrs. Buford Parmer and their daughter, also of Hereford; her sister, Mrs. S. H. Condon and Mr. Condon. Miss Ruth Cross and Miss Pearl Cross, all of Canyon, and Miss Dorothy Miller of Amarillo.

Mrs. Soll wore as her wedding gown a powder blue chiffon, with hat of atmosphere georgette trimmed in powder blue folds and with slippers and hose the shade of atmosphere. Her going-away suit was an ensemble of burnt orange georgette with hat of black lace, and black slippers and hose.

Mrs. Soll has been a resident of Canyon for three years, making her home with her sister, Mrs. Condon. She took her degree in oratory at Texas Woman's College of Fort Worth and then came to Canyon to receive her B. A. degree from West Texas State Teachers College in 1928. The following year she received the degree of B. P. E. from the American College of Physical Education in Chicago. The past term she taught physical education in the Junior high school of Amarillo.

The groom is the son of Mrs. E. C. Soll of Tipton. He was reared in that city, taking an active part in affairs of the community and now operates a farm near there. He obtained his education in the schools of Tipton, taking special courses in Manual Arts and Agriculture.

The couple left immediately following the ceremony for Tipton where they will make their home on the farm.

ENTERTAINING BRIDGE TEA AT HARP HOME WEDNESDAY

A most delightful bridge tea was given by Mrs. George Nance, Jr. and Mrs. Ray McReynolds at the home of Mrs. Guy Harp Wednesday afternoon. The reception suite was beautifully decorated in dahlias and sweet peas, and a green and white color scheme was carried out in tapers and the refreshment course of sandwiches, lime ice, and tea. An attractive note was the tiny sweet peas frozen in the ice cubes used in the tea. Mrs. Glen Dowlen and Mrs. E. J. Cundiff presided over the tea table.

MRS. SANDERS ENTERTAINS FRIDAY AFTERNOON BRIDGE

Mrs. Dan Sanders was a charming hostess when she entertained the Friday Afternoon Bridge club at her home last week with three tables of bridge. Cut flowers in pastel shades were attractive decorations in the entertaining rooms.

At the conclusion of the play refreshments of fruit salad, sandwiches, almonds, cake and iced tea were served by the hostess.

Club members and special guests were: Mrs. Bill Black, Mrs. Ray Campbell, Mrs. O. N. Gamble, Mrs. Guy Harp, Mrs. Tom Knighton, Mrs. Wesley Kleinschmidt, Mrs. Travis Shaw, Mrs. Clarence Thompson, Mrs. Joe Gamble, Mrs. Bob Neblett, Mrs. Grady Oldham, and Mrs. C. R. Burrow.

There was a young man of St. Clou Who courted a girl named Sou When he asked this young miss To give him a sweet kiss. She said, "I don't care if I do."

Well, folks, I had intended to leave state politics out of this column as much as possible, but don't look like I can. I am going to make a trip this week, in fact I will be gone long before you get to read this and I am going to the piney woods and cross timbers and black lands of east Texas and tell them where the cow eat the cabbage. You see I hear that the folks down here I come from ain't lining up for Clint Small just like I would have them do and therefore I am going down and get things straightened out before it is too late.

Now don't worry if you don't see this column next week because I'm going to come back here in time to vote without fail unless they lynch me or throw a firecracker under my bed or something else desperate.

Honest, and no fooling about it I am going to get that bunch down state told just how I mean for them to line up for Clint.

Take it or leave it, but the old saying that politics has strange bed fellows is certainly true. Look at Mr. Love and Mr. Senter, so sweet and lovable like.

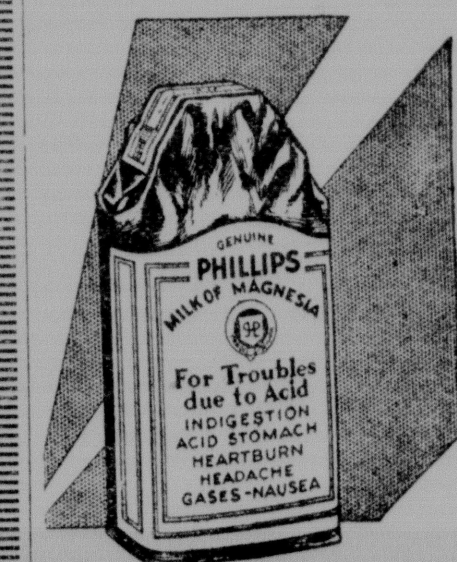

But anyhow I'll be back to scratch Mr. Love and all the rest except Clint on the 26th.

It seems that I don't get to keep the right check on the county candidates as I should do but I have been attending to state politics too much to care for the local boys and myself as constabulary.

The folks out here in the country had a pie supper the other night but I had to stay here and meet Mr. Bobbitt, the attorney general. I sure heard a good speech too. In fact I heard more good speaking from that one man than I would have from a whole bunch of county candidates put together.

Anyway, I'm coming back in time next week.

And, too, it seems that I have no time for golf anymore. I read by

Too Much ACID

MANY people, two hours after eating, suffer indigestion as they call it. It is usually excess acid. Correct it with an alkali. The best way, the quick, harmless and efficient way, is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained for 50 years the standard with physicians. One spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in stomach acids, and at once. The symptoms disappear in five minutes.

You will never use crude methods when you know this better method. And you will never suffer from excess acid when you prove out this easy relief.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drugstore. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of the Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company since 1875.

the papers a few days ago that Old Tack of the Amarillo News-Globe got beat by his wife playing golf. That's nothing, I can sympathize with him.

So can Lee Foster.

By the way, I was asking about the gold golf ball that Gano had the other day. Lee Foster's domestic boss informs me that Lee won the ball from Gano and that he lost it soon away, but that the next time Lee gets the gold golf ball in his possession that he'll lose it quicker than before. Shes' going to get it.

Evidently golf is a good game. John D. Rockefeller, the old man himself, celebrated his 91st year by playing his usual round of golf. Now how's that for a tonic for anyone who wants to live a long time.

While such fellows as myself and Lee Foster are bemoaning about the wives learning to play golf, up and along comes Bill Bryant and wants wives to learn it so that the men folks can be allowed to go out and play on Sunday mornings instead of going to church. Bill states that his wife makes him stay off the golf course on Sunday mornings whereas she might not if she knew how fascinating the game is. Also Vince Reeves is campaigning on the same platform.

Vince also tells me that the Canyon club has challenged the school boys and faculty members at the college and at the time the report was handed me they had not accepted the challenge.

Of course I don't want to say that the college folk are not courageous and bold but maybe its because they got their golf clubs stolen last Saturday night and have nothing with which to play.

Don't nobody rock the boat, I'll be right back as soon as my money is all gone and I can hobo a way back.

Susie, the office flapper, got back alright from her vacation, and believe me she is still vacant. She got back about the time that we were all talking about the XIT ranch law suit that came up last week and someone wanted to know where the XIT was and she up and said "That is the place you go out."

I'll see you when I get back.

Well, folks, I sure held a big political rally in my office Monday of this week. From the list of candidates present one might have imagined that it was a special called session of the legislature. Among those present was a candidate for governor; one for lieutenant governor; a candidate for the legislature; a former state senator and about a half dozen campaign managers. Also a gang of newspaper reporters. Mabe you don't think the jokes fell thick and fast.

Mrs. S. M. Clark of Ralls is here this week visiting her son, D. W. Clark.

Miss Lillian Atkins visited in the home of her brother, T. B. Atkins, in Amarillo over the week end.

VITALITY!

"SURE! I can finish that today"

A strong, healthy body and mind always respond to the occasion. Employers appreciate and recognize unfailing freshness—always ready—cheerfully ready to carry on—minus that "tired feeling."

DON'T let a weakened body hold you back. Prolonged, it may result in so-called premature old age. Today's happiness and friends may be gone tomorrow. Thousands of people have a low blood count—to this may be attributed skin troubles, "run-down" systems and even more serious ailments.

If you tire easily—lack pep—if your skin is not clear—if your appetite is "gone"—you owe it to yourself and friends to try S.S.S.

When you get your red-blood-cells back up to normal, feeling sluggish, let-down feeling, lack of appetite, skin troubles disappear. You should get hungry again and sleep soundly; firm flesh should take the place of that which was once flabby. You should feel strong. Your nerves become steady.

S.S.S. helps Nature build rich, red blood. It improves the processes by which the body is nourished.

For more than 100 years S.S.S. has been helping people regain and retain their strength and charm. Thousands of users have testified to its benefits in unsolicited letters of gratitude.

S.S.S. is made from strictly fresh vegetable drugs and is easily assimilated. All drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.

If you tire easily—lack pep—if your skin is not clear—if your appetite is "gone"—you owe it to yourself and friends to try S.S.S.

When you get your red-blood-cells back up to normal, that sluggish, let-down feeling, lack of appetite, skin troubles disappear. You should get hungry again and sleep soundly; firm flesh should take the place of that which was once flabby. You should feel strong. Your nerves become steady.

S.S.S. helps Nature build rich, red blood. It improves the processes by which the body is nourished.

For more than 100 years S.S.S. has been helping people regain and retain their strength and charm. Thousands of users have testified to its benefits in unsolicited letters of gratitude.

S.S.S. is made from strictly fresh vegetable drugs and is easily assimilated. All drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.

Among the outstanding social events of the past week have been two miscellaneous household showers honoring Mrs. E. J. Cundiff, recent bride.

Affair at Black Home

The first of these affairs took place Thursday afternoon when Miss Pearl Black of this city and Mrs. J. Clyde Freeman of White Deer entertained at the J. M. Black home. A pink and white color scheme in the wedding motif was attractively carried out in the entertaining suite where the guests were assembled. Various contests formed the diversion for the afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served to the following club members: Mrs. Berl Mayfield, Mrs. Earl Robbins, Mrs. J. J. Walker, Mrs. A. E. Terry, Mrs. Hubert Hartman, Mrs. Clyde Davis, Mrs. J. Alvin McDonald, Miss Lillian Atkins, Miss Olive Schramm, Miss Agnes Meyers, Miss Edith Wiggins, Miss Marie Wallace, Miss Velma Thomas, and Miss Minnie McCarty.

MENACE OF IDLE TIME

Teaching people how to use their leisure time constitutes the most difficult problem before American educators.

Our parents and their parents before them have done the hard, rough work of wresting a continent from savages and overcoming nature's barriers. On the basis laid by them, we have builded great cities, have perfected wonderful machines, and have harnessed to drive them the very lightning itself.

Therefore, our children, their children and grand children, relieved of burdensome toil, will enjoy shorter working days and shorter working weeks than even we enjoy. Much of this benefit our generation has given to our children as indicated by widespread popular reaction against child labor.

We may expect to see the legal age for leaving school raised still higher, for unless we can keep these young workers out of the labor market, we may expect more men of 40 and 50 years of age to be laid on the shelf.

What will the America of tomorrow do with this leisure? Unless he is trained to use it, this time is likely to prove the curse which the great builders of our country feared when warned against idleness in any form.

For it is possible for idleness to lead to the debauchery which wrecked the great civilizations of ancient times or to the iniquities which beset the medieval period.

Ask the young man who is in trouble because of drink, or gambling, or automobile stealing or any number of other offenses, and you will discover that free time is at the bottom of his difficulty. He was not at home, nor at work, nor in school when he got into trouble. Our forefathers wisely observed that the devil finds work for idle hands to do.

As a leisure class has developed in modern Europe, many of its members have entered government service and have been especially trained to discharge such responsibilities. It is possible that more and more such persons can be used in our public service, but we do not desire to have all such service rendered by any one class, nor will there be enough places to utilize all who will have leisure.

Under the present economic system more and more Americans will find themselves with an increasing amount of free time on their hands. Unless our descendants learn how to use this time to their physical, mental and moral advancement, our civilization is doomed to dry rot and inevitable decay.—By William John Cooper.

Federal Commissioner of Education, in U. S. Daily.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Warren and children returned Thursday from Colorado where they have been vacationing for the past ten days.

MEXICAN LABOR PROBLEM

In the Baltimore Sun, Duncan Aikman sums up the various factors involved in the Mexican immigration question in a masterly manner. He says that veto of the Mexican quota bill, which recently passed the Senate, would cause joy in the Southwest as the merchants of our border towns fear retaliatory measures if it goes into effect. Mr. Aikman says in part:

"... the whole region, from the beet sugar fields of Utah and Colorado to the citrus fruit orchards of California, has become increasingly dependent on Mexican labor for harvesting its crops, maintaining its railroads and doing other unskilled and semi-skilled work. ... the whole economic structure of this territory is built upon the principle that Mexican labor is plentiful, always available for long term or short term jobs ..."

One fellow who has had his ups and downs is the Texas student who worked his way through college constructing crossword puzzles.

The groundsman of a Cleveland country club who shot a boy searching for golf balls on the links said he did it in self-defense. He believes he has evidence, no doubt that the intruder was in the rough.

The manager of a New York hostery firm was found after a robbery with his mouth crammed full of stockings. Probably the first words he uttered to his rescuers began: "That reminds me of a yarn—"

Little Elsie thinks that Aunt Arctic is a relative to Admiral Byrd.

Davidson Says That Small Will Go In The Second Primary

Senator Clint C. Small has the best chance over all other gubernatorial candidates to win in the first primary, according to Lynch Davidson, of Houston, former lieutenant and governor of Texas, and retired candidate in the present contest for governor.

Mr. Davidson has been freely expressing his opinion regarding the favorable and widespread support of Senator Small in a series of addresses he is making over the state against the state road bond issue. Several weeks ago he announced that he thought both Senator Small and James Young had the qualities that would fit them for successful service in the governor's chair and he urged his friends over the state to consider them seriously for the office. Since he has been campaigning on his own against the road bond issue, however, he announced that in his opinion Senator Small stood the best chance for election.

"I have been in very close touch with the political situation throughout the state for some time," Mr. Davidson said. "And I think I know something of the trend of affairs."

"I am now frank enough to say that Senator Small stands as the foremost candidate in the minds of the people for election. I believe that out of the district West of Fort Worth and North of the T. & P. railroad the Plains candidate will poll at least 100,000 votes. With 11 candidates in the race this will practically assure his being in the runoff."

Mr. Davidson added weight to his argument when he said former Governor James Ferguson announced recently that he believed Small would get at least 40 per cent of the vote in the territory North of the T. & P. and West of Tarrant County.

"Fourth per cent of that vote would be 80,000 votes, and if Jim Ferguson concedes that much you know well that a man of his political judgment cannot be far wrong."

Senator Small is gaining rapidly in East Texas as people realize that his chances of election are increasing daily, Mr. Davidson said.

The veteran Houston campaigner and political prophet said that he has been in position to keep in close touch with the political situation in Texas through his many contacts over the state. He has received as many as 500 telegrams in a single day and thousands of letters have reached him from all sections of Texas.

Canyons Please California Man; Makes Comments

Wheeler Phillips, a retired rancher of Long Beach, California, was among the thousands who viewed the Palo Duro Canyons Sunday. He was high in his praise for the beauty of the canyons. Mr. Wheeler has crossed the western United States 18 times and each time he has followed a new route, he states in order to see the scenic beauty.

It is his opinion that the beauty of Palo Duro compares well with the scenery of the other sections of the United States. A feature which appeals to him is the fact that the Palo Duro canyons can be reached so easily and that they may be entered more easily than other canyons well known over the United States.

Mr. Phillips owns much land in the Panhandle, Oklahoma and Kansas. He and Mrs. Phillips are at this time staying at Lark, Texas looking after his interests.

HANDCUFFS AND PICTURES ARE LOANED SOC.

HAND MADE CUFFS WERE USED IN CORONADO'S TIME.

Pictures Show Scenes in Plainview in 1879; Loaned by Mrs. J. L. Vaughn.

Loans to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society in the form of an old pair of handcuffs and two pictures of historical value, were made last week. Sam Archer and Hicks Wilbanks of Amarillo loaned the handcuffs, and Mrs. J. L. Vaughn of Plainview temporarily loaned the two pictures.

The handcuffs were found about eight miles north of Spearman on Palo Duro creek in Hansford county while excavations were being made for a vat. The cuffs are crude things of hand forged steel. The links are rusted together, and one lock is still on. They were found four feet under the ground. According to L. F. Sheffy, they have been examined by experts who say they were of the kind that was used on pirate ships about the time of Coronado. It is thought by some that perhaps these were on a man who was buried.

One of the pictures loaned by Mrs. Vaughn is of the west side of the square in Plainview in 1879. The buildings shown in the picture and the signs thereon are: "Central Hotel," "Mrs. M. B. Fowles, Notions and Millinery," "Irick and Dyer, Groceries," "City Drug Store," "Williams Brothers Cheap Cash Stores," "Donohoe and Ware, dry goods, boots, shoes, groceries and hardware." In front of the building two freight teams are drawn up. One of them belongs to Mr. Irick. The two teams reach from one end of the square to the other.

The other picture is of an old hotel which was built in Dimmitt. It was moved to Plainview by means of eight wagons and thirty-two horses. The picture was taken in 1897. This building has just recently been remodeled.

The work of the new association is working in a manner somewhat different to the way that the old two-county association was operated. Instead of the cow-tester visiting all of the herds in the association there are some who take their own samples, following instructions given by the tester, and bring them here to be tested.

Did you ever see a pessimistic hen? Did you ever know of one starving to death waiting for worms to dig themselves out?

An illusionist performing in a Northern town put a woman into a box from which there was no apparent outlet, and shut the lid. When he opened it again there was nothing inside but a couple of rabbits.

CLOSE ON THE HEELS

INDIANAPOLIS MAY 30, CONOCO WINS 3RD, 4TH, AND 5TH PLACES
AT ALTOONA AT BETTER THAN ONE HUNDRED MILES PER HOUR

Frank Farmer, in a Miller Special, "placed" third with an average speed of 102.2 miles per hour. "Shorty" Cantlon, in a Miller-Schofield Special, was fourth with 101.5 miles per hour. "Speed" Gardner was fifth in a Miller Front Drive Special. All three used CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil in this convincing demonstration of the qualities of this regular "stock" motor oil. At Altoona, as at Indianapolis, this was the first time that a stock oil had placed so high in the finish of the race.

The story of the Altoona race cannot be told without reference to the accomplishment of CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil at Indianapolis. For it was in that 300-mile classic that the stamina of this new oil was impressed on the racing fraternity. After observers had seen the oil at the close of the Indianapolis race; after they had observed its full body and good color as it came from Dave Evans' motor, the word went out that CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil had displayed the qualities necessary to solve the lubrication problems of racing motors. CONOCO had earned the respect of this most skeptical group—and earned it fairly.

In view of the Indianapolis results, it was only natural for a majority of the drivers at Altoona to choose CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil for America's fastest competitive race.

And as these cars whizzed around the boards at Altoona on June 14, CONOCO again proved its worth in a field previously dominated by castor blends—a field which other stock oils have repeatedly tried to enter without success! So chalk up another victory for CONOCO

Germ-Processed Motor Oil, close on the heels of Indianapolis... a victory won with the same stock Germ-Processed oil that you can buy at any Red Triangle station.

These CONOCO victories have a definite meaning to every one who drives a car. They substantiate every claim that was made for it when the oil was introduced last November.

You can experience the safety and economy of this oil by stopping at the next Red Triangle Station and asking for:

First Month of New Association Places 46 Cows on Honor Roll

A grade Jersey cow headed the list of cows on the first month's honor roll of the new Randall County Cow Testing association, by a production record of 1206 pounds of milk and 86.8 pounds of butter fat. The cow is owned by H. R. Fulton whose herd headed the list with 19 cows on the honor roll for the month of May in the Deaf Smith-Randall association.

The cow testing association ended its first month of activity June 30. The results have been very satisfactory and the work is moving along nicely. W. H. Dungan, tester for the association states: There are 28 herds on the record books of the association with a total of 566 cows. It is claimed that this is perhaps the largest one-county association in the state.

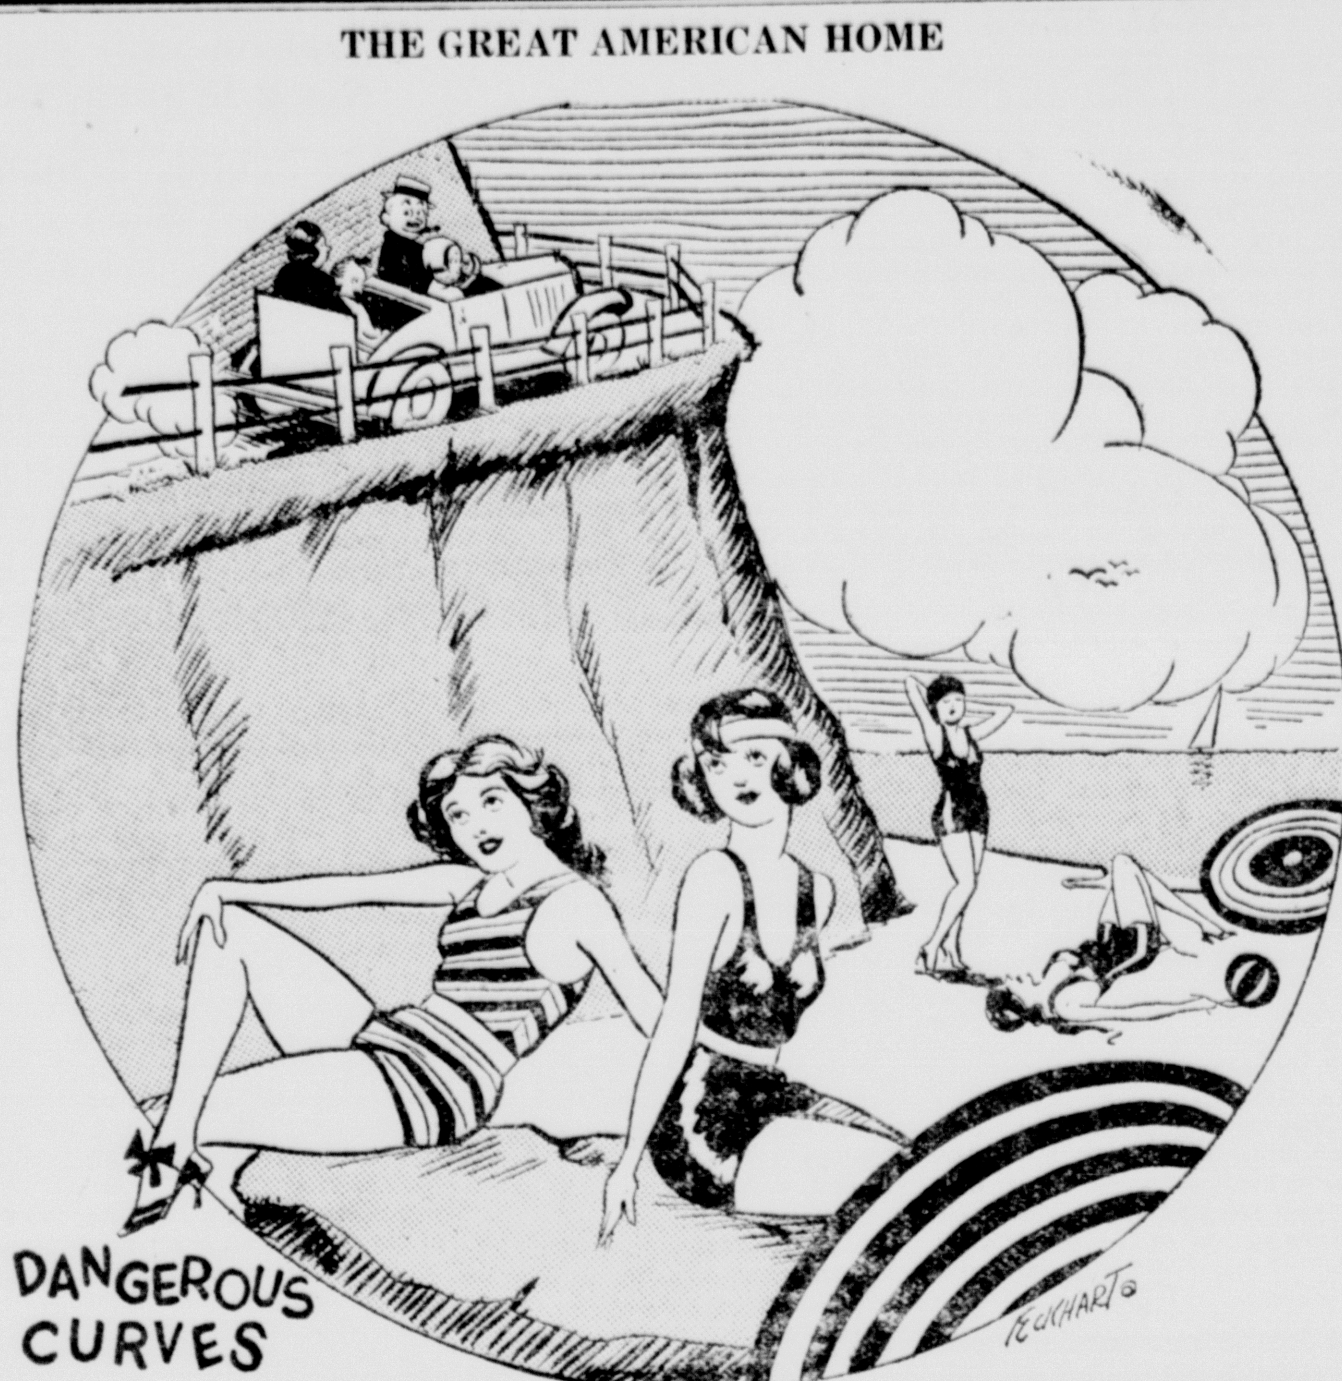

Randall county's dairy herds are

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderly at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c to-day at the nearest Rexall Drug Store. City Pharmacy.

Randall Farmers Attend Federal Board Meeting

Randall county sent the largest delegation of wheat farmers to the Farm Board meeting held in Amarillo Friday at which time Secretary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde and Alexander Legge, chairman of the Federal Farm Board spoke to the wheat farmer of the Panhandle. Besides the two Federal men there were prominent officials of the Texas A. & M. College present.

It was estimated that more than 2,000 heard the addresses of the afternoon given in the municipal auditorium. The general discussion was centered around the fact that more wheat was being produced than there was demand for the production. Farmers were urged to cut down the production in order to bring up the price of wheat to where it is profitable to raise it.

Secretary Hyde, in an address in which he mixed humor with earnestness, asked his hearers if they wanted themselves and their families placed on a competitive living scale with the peasants of Russia, the laborers of Australia, and the Japanese and Chinese coolies of Argentina. "Keep on raising more and more wheat," he said, "bring yourselves into competition with such countries, and you will inevitably force such a scale upon yourselves, your wives, and your sons and daughters."

Chairman Legge, who conducted the question box, faced a barrage of puzzling, and, at times, unreasonable questions calmly and considerately. His answer, in practically every case was "Organize; run your own business; don't depend upon some one else to do it for you. The Farm Board has some powers to help you financially and otherwise. But we are not allowed to deal with individuals. Organize, and we can help. It is squarely up to YOU."

County Agent W. H. Upchurch, in commenting on the meeting stated that he believed that the majority present at the meeting Friday understood the situation and understood that the farm board cannot perform miracles. He stated that there was no evidence of radical demands on the part of farmers who seek aid from the Farm Board.

Hundreds View Museum Relics Here on Sunday

Approximately 500 visitors registered Sunday afternoon between the hours of one and six o'clock in the historical society room when for the second time this summer on Sunday afternoon the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society museum was open to visitors. President J. A. Hill, L. F. Sheffy, field secretary of the society, and members of the history department were in the room receiving the visitors and explaining the relics to them.

Some of the visitors drove from as far south as Plainview. "One thing about this group of visitors," said Mr. Sheffy in commenting on the value of the open house, "they all seemed to be vitally interested in the records and pictures of the society and in the proposed museum building."

The museum was opened at this particular time for the benefit of the hundreds of people who visited the scenes of the Palo Duro canyon. The Canyon chamber of commerce sponsored the opening of forbidden portions of the canyon from ten to six o'clock Sunday. The museum opening was a part of the program to direct the eyes of all West Texas on the historical and scenic background of the Panhandle.

"Proved To Be a Wonderful Medicine in My Case," Says Former Sufferer.

MR. H. C. SHERMAN

Any medicine that can win more than a million friends in seven years must have merit, and that is exactly what Konjola has done. You wonder why Konjola has become a household word? Well, read what Mr. H. C. Sherman, painting contractor of Goddard, Kansas, says:

house because of the danger of becoming lost.

In the afternoon the scene shifted from the Lighthouse canyons to canyons on the Marshall and Elkins ranches. The long trek of cars began to move at noon and many who had packed lunches spread them under what shade there was available and many made shade by improvised tents that were stretched between cars.

Amarillo sent the largest delegation of visitors to view the canyons. More than 1000 people came from Amarillo. Numerous other Panhandle towns sent large delegations. Thirty-eight towns in the Panhandle and on the Plains had representatives here. They were: Amarillo, Spearman, Wellington, Plainview, Big Spring, Hereford, Pampa, Stamford, Vega, Muleshoe, Clarendon, Claude, Panhandle, Floydada, Dimmitt, Dawn, UMBarger, Quail, Washburn, Tulia, Borger, Lubbock, Quitaque, Turkey, Silverton, Canadian, Sudan, Kress, Happy, Memphis, Lockney, Snyder, Boyce City, Miami, Ralls and Estelline.

Cars were checked from 18 other towns in Texas. They were:

Dallas, Fort Worth, Waco, Paris, Mercedes, Houston, El Paso, College Station, Greenville, Colorado, Thornton, Electra, Wichita Falls, Kaufman, Waxahachie, and Austin.

There were cars from eight New Mexico cities including Clovis, Portales, Fort Sumner, Roswell, Albuquerque, Las Cruces, and Lordsburg.

Oklahoma City, Guymon, Sapulpa, Russellville, Shawnee and Maud were the towns and cities of Oklahoma represented.

States of the nation who were represented were:

Louisiana, Ohio, New York, Oklahoma, Illinois, District of Columbia, Alabama, New Mexico, Kansas, Missouri, Arizona, South Dakota, California, Arkansas, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Tennessee, and Montana.

There was one car from Mexico and two from Canada.

Officials of the local Chamber of Commerce were high in the praise of the manner in which the visitors conducted themselves while visiting the canyons. Respect and consideration were shown the property of the ranchers. Much praise and comment was heard by visitors from other parts of the nation. They were all impressed at the beauty of the canyons and the majority were surprised that any such thing existed in the Panhandle.

The Chamber of Commerce is considering another such excursion into other parts of the canyons later.

C Of C Head In Letter of Thanks For Aid Sunday

In a letter to the News, J. W. Kleinschmidt, president of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce openly expresses the thanks of that organization to those who co-operated to make the opening of the canyons such a success. His letter follows:

"On behalf of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce I take this means of publicly thanking those who had a part in making the day of opening the canyons to the public, the success it was.

"To the ranchmen, who kindly opened their gates, the Chamber of Commerce is very grateful. Without the unstinted co-operation on their part the day could not have been possible.

"To members of Company F 142 Infantry and their commander, Capt. W. E. Lockhart, the Canyon Chamber of Commerce offers thanks for aid on their part in handling the enormous crowds which exceeded our expectations of a successful day.

"To the Canyon troupe of Boy Scouts we are thankful for their services in doing, 'a good turn daily,' by assisting the Chamber of Commerce with the crowds.

"To the individuals who gave their time and energy toward preparations of the day the Chamber of Commerce feels grateful.

"To the newspapers that so kindly opened their columns to us in giving complete and detailed information in the news columns as well as editorial columns we are thankful. Without such publicity the day could not have been the success it was.

"As a body we feel that the day was far beyond the expected success that we had hoped for, when plans were first made.

"We believe that it has aroused an interest in the beauty of the canyons, that will go a long way in aiding to create a state park in the Palo Duros. We do not care to take the credit for such a project. It is not to be one for Canyon alone but it is something that will take the co-operation of the entire Panhandle because it is something that belongs to the Panhandle.

"J. W. Kleinschmidt, Pres. Canyon Chamber of Commerce"

Canyon Wins Over Hereford by 8-3

Hereford fell before the onslaught of the Canyon baseball team Sunday afternoon in a game played on the Hereford diamond by a score of 8-3.

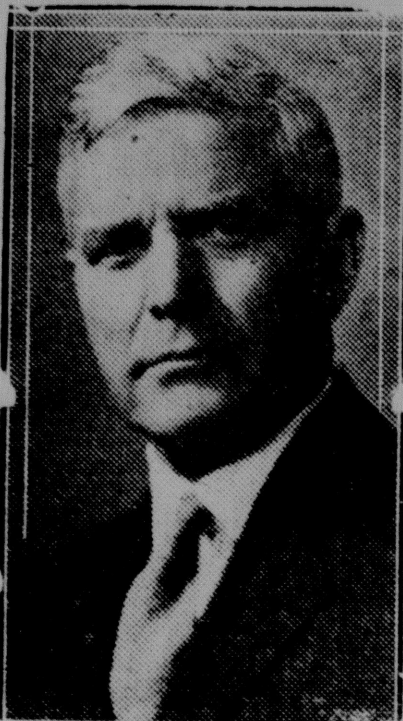

In his first trip to the plate, Wheeler of the Canyon nine slapped out a home run, in the second inning to knot the count with Hereford who scored a counter in the first inning.

Canyon counted 2 runs in the third inning and three more in the fifth inning to put the game on ice for the afternoon. Two more runs were made in the sixth inning. Hereford made their two additional runs in the sixth.

Batteries were: Curtsinger and Bennett; Farris and Wright.

Mrs. E. E. Wofford of Lubbock, accompanied by her sister, Miss Hilda Braudt of Plainview visited her daughter, Miss Dorlea Wofford in the E. L. Braudt home here Sunday.

Henry S. Bishop Of Amarillo Asks For Dist. Judge Office

To the people of the 47th Judicial District of Texas:

After fourteen years as district attorney and twelve years as district judge in the service of the people of this district, I respectfully submit my candidacy for the fourth term as judge. It has become almost the settled policy of the people of this state and other states to retain for long terms the judges of appellate and district courts.

Many in Texas have served and are now serving their fourth, fifth, and sixth terms. This evidently is because long continued service and experience of judges in these important and difficult positions results in better administration of the law.

If the people approve of my record and elect me again I will continue, as heretofore, in my efforts to justly administer the laws and give a square deal to everybody, with the least possible expenditure of the people's time and tax money.

Hereby I present my best wishes to the News and to the voters of Randall county, and will especially appreciate the favorable consideration of my candidacy by all who may believe me worthy and capable.

HENRY S. BISHOP

Bobbitt Spoke Here Friday in Seeking Office

Speaking in interest of his candidacy for his first elective term as Attorney General of Texas, Robert Lee Bobbitt, who is now serving as Attorney General by appointment, addressed an audience of several hundred people here Friday night.

In the main part, his address was a discussion of the duties of the attorney general's office and the manner in which that part of the state government is managed. He pledged himself to a continuance of doing his duty if elected to the office which he now holds. He was appointed to succeed Hon. Claude Pollard who resigned last September. "No suit will be filed by my office that is not good faith and sound morals," he declared.

In discussing the matter of West Texas land suits he stated that the State cannot take the attitude of "the kind can do no wrong." He declared that the land was bought years ago in good faith and that it was his intention to perpetuate the good faith of the government as long as the public welfare was not at stake.

In discussing the work of his department since he took the oath of office he recited the filing of an injunction to withhold the use of $5,000,000 of school funds for the rural schools. He declared that the suit for the injunction was filed by parties not interested in the welfare of the rural schools, who claimed the acts of the legislature in appropriating the amount for rural aid unconstitutional.

The injunction was granted at 4 o'clock one day and at 12 o'clock the next the Attorney General authorized the state school superintendent to begin using the money, thus extending the school term of 4,000 rural schools from 3 to 6 months.

The speech of Attorney General Bobbitt was clear from personalities and it was only once or twice that he referred to his opponents in a general way.

The attorney general of the state is the attorney of the people and the state is entitled to service of high order, Mr. Bobbitt stated. He continued further by saying "any person who will double deal in public life will double deal in business."

He recited a bit his personal history. He is the grandson of the late Col. Bobbitt who is well known to old timers of the Panhandle. He was reared in Hill county and received his college education at the North Texas State Teachers College and the University of Texas.

In public life he has served three terms in the House of Representatives; served as District Attorney and as District Judge. He stated that his record had been made and that he stood upon that record as a candidate for election to the office of Attorney General. Senator J. W. Reid presided at the speaking and Rev. W. C. Kunze introduced the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Amenson and son, Bobby Dan, of Silverton, are spending a few days in the home of Mr. Amenson's sister, Mrs. Vidgil Briscoe.

Prof. George Dickey of Arlington spent a few days here visiting with T. M. Moore, a collegemate. Mr. Dickey is a teacher in the junior college at Arlington, and was highly pleased at the College plant located here.

Covey C. Thomas, candidate for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, hereby respectfully solicits your votes and active support in the Democratic Primary, July 26, 1930. Born in South Texas, resident of Southwest Texas, graduate of the University of Texas, 1896 Law Class, four years county attorney, sixteen years county judge, nine years district judge, Baptist, Mason, Woodman, farmer, ranchman and lawyer. Present incumbent, Judge Cureton, he thinks, should be satisfied with his many years of service as Attorney General and Chief Justice of this State. Thomas promises, if elected, not to ask for more than second term and by hard work and long hours to remedy the injustice caused by our Supreme Court being several years behind with its work. He asks the fair-minded and generous people of Texas to give South Texas and West Texas representation on this high court, something these sections of Texas have not had in around thirty years. He promises not to shirk ANY official duty for ANY consideration, political or otherwise, and to make good his slogan for this office, to-wit: "More Work, Less Play, No Politics."

Keep Your Machinery From The Weather

The high winds, dust, rains, hot sunshine and freezing temperatures do more harm to your farm machinery than the use you put them to. They seldom, if ever, wear out—they rust out.

It is far cheaper to build good sheds for your equipment

Cheaper to Build Sheds Than to Buy Machinery

than it is to buy new machines oftener. The above advice is not guess work, but the results of experiments and investigations carried out over a period of years. A machinery shed will actually save you more money than it will cost you.

Educational Entertainment for the Children's Vacation Hours

Vacation time affords an opportunity to children to read those entertaining, delightful stories that every child should know—stories that he has not time to read during the school term.

From our large assortment of good books for children, these books are ones we call your attention to as good for vacation reading:

"Little Women"—Louisa May Alcott.

This story, beloved of every girl and most boys, presents high ideals with a frankness, humor and common sense which is very convincing and wholesome. Grades 6-7.

"Under the Lilacs"—Louisa May Alcott.

Story of a stray circus boy and the good friends he found for himself and his dog in the old house among the lilacs. Grades 4-6.

Other Louisa May Alcott books are "Little Men," "Jack and Jill," "Jo's Boys," and "Old-Fashioned Girl."

"Understood Betsy"—Dorothy Canfield.

This classic for children has gone through fifteen printings and is just as popular as ever. It is the beautifully told story of a sickly little girl who leaves the city to gain health and happiness on the farm. The book will do much to inculcate a love and understanding of nature in young readers. Grades 4-6.

"Story of Dr. Dolittle"—Hugh Lofting.

A queer old doctor who loves animals more than the "real people," turns his attention to curing their diseases and goes to Africa to check an epidemic among the monkeys. Much droll humor. Grades 5-6.

"Davy and the Goblin"—C. E. Carryl.

Davy, after reading "Alice's Adventures in Wonderland," goes on a "believing voyage" with a goblin and has adventures with candy folk, fairies and hobgoblins. Grades 4-6.

This evidently is because long continued service and experience of judges in these important and difficult positions results in better administration of the law.

If the people approve of my record and elect me again I will continue, as heretofore, in my efforts to justly administer the laws and give a square deal to everybody, with the least possible expenditure of the people's time and tax money.

Hereby I present my best wishes to the News and to the voters of Randall county, and will especially appreciate the favorable consideration of my candidacy by all who may believe me worthy and capable.

Bobbitt Spoke Here Friday in Seeking Office

Speaking in interest of his candidacy for his first elective term as Attorney General of Texas, Robert Lee Bobbitt, who is now serving as Attorney General by appointment, addressed an audience of several hundred people here Friday night.

In the main part, his address was a discussion of the duties of the attorney general's office and the manner in which that part of the state government is managed. He pledged himself to a continuance of doing his duty if elected to the office which he now holds. He was appointed to succeed Hon. Claude Pollard who resigned last September. "No suit will be filed by my office that is not good faith and sound morals," he declared.

In discussing the matter of West Texas land suits he stated that the State cannot take the attitude of "the kind can do no wrong." He declared that the land was bought years ago in good faith and that it was his intention to perpetuate the good faith of the government as long as the public welfare was not at stake.

In discussing the work of his department since he took the oath of office he recited the filing of an injunction to withhold the use of $5,000,000 of school funds for the rural schools. He declared that the suit for the injunction was filed by parties not interested in the welfare of the rural schools, who claimed the acts of the legislature in appropriating the amount for rural aid unconstitutional.

The injunction was granted at 4 o'clock one day and at 12 o'clock the next the Attorney General authorized the state school superintendent to begin using the money, thus extending the school term of 4,000 rural schools from 3 to 6 months.

The speech of Attorney General Bobbitt was clear from personalities and it was only once or twice that he referred to his opponents in a general way.

The attorney general of the state is the attorney of the people and the state is entitled to service of high order, Mr. Bobbitt stated. He continued further by saying "any person who will double deal in public life will double deal in business."

He recited a bit his personal history. He is the grandson of the late Col. Bobbitt who is well known to old timers of the Panhandle. He was reared in Hill county and received his college education at the North Texas State Teachers College and the University of Texas.

In public life he has served three terms in the House of Representatives; served as District Attorney and as District Judge. He stated that his record had been made, and that he stood upon that record as a candidate for election to the office of Attorney General. Senator J. W. Reid presided at the speaking and Rev. W. C. Kunze introduced the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Amerson and son, Bobby Dan, of Silverton, are spending a few days in the home of Mr. Amerson's sister, Mrs. Vidgil Briscoe.

Prof. George Dickey of Arlington spent a few days here visiting with T. M. Moore, a collegemate. Mr. Dickey is a teacher in the junior college at Arlington, and was highly pleased at the College plant located here.

Covey C. Thomas, candidate for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, hereby respectfully solicits your votes and active support in the Democratic Primary, July 26, 1930. Born in South Texas, resident of Southwest Texas, graduate of the University of Texas, 1896 Law Class, four years county attorney, sixteen years county judge, nine years district judge, Baptist, Mason, Woodman, farmer, ranchman and lawyer. Present incumbent, Judge Cureton, he thinks, should be satisfied with his many years of service as Attorney General and Chief Justice of this State. Thomas promises, if elected, not to ask for more than second term and by hard work and long hours to remedy the injustice caused by our Supreme Court being several years behind with its work. He asks the fair-minded and generous people of Texas to give South Texas and West Texas representation on this high court, something these sections of Texas have not had in around thirty years. He promises not to shirk ANY official duty for ANY consideration, political or otherwise, and to make good his slogan for this office, to-wit: "More Work, Less Play, No Politics."

Keep Your Machinery From The Weather

The high winds, dust, rains, hot sunshine and freezing temperatures do more harm to your farm machinery than the use you put them to. They seldom, if ever, wear out—they rust out.

It is far cheaper to build good sheds for your equipment

than it is to buy new machines oftener. The above advice is not guess work, but the results of experiments and investigations carried out over a period of years. A machinery shed will actually save you more money than it will cost you.

Educational Entertainment for the Children's Vacation Hours

Vacation time affords an opportunity to children to read those entertaining, delightful stories that every child should know—stories that he has not time to read during the school term.

From our large assortment of good books for children, these books are ones we call your attention to as good for vacation reading:

"Little Women"—Louisa May Alcott.

This story, beloved of every girl and most boys, presents high ideals with a frankness, humor and common sense which is very convincing and wholesome. Grades 6-7.

"Under the Lilacs"—Louisa May Alcott.

Story of a stray circus boy and the good friends he found for himself and his dog in the old house among the lilacs. Grades 4-6.

"Understood Betsy"—Dorothy Canfield.

This classic for children has gone through fifteen printings and is just as popular as ever. It is the beautifully told story of a sickly little girl who leaves the city to gain health and happiness on the farm. The book will do much to inculcate a love and understanding of nature in young readers. Grades 4-6.

"Story of Dr. Dolittle"—Hugh Lofting.

A queer old doctor who loves animals more than the "best people," turns his attention to curing their diseases and goes to Africa to check an epidemic among the monkeys. Much droll humor. Grades 5-6.

"Davy and the Goblin"—C. E. Carryl. Davy, after reading "Alice's Adventures in Wonderland," goes on a "believing voyage" with a goblin and has adventures with candy folk, fairies and hobgoblins. Grades 4-6.

My Record Is My Platform

176 felony cases have been tried in Potter County since I have been District Attorney. 140 defendants were convicted, and 36 were acquitted. The percentage of convictions in Armstrong and Randall Counties is practically the same as in Potter County.

With the experience gained in the prosecution of these cases, I feel even better qualified to represent you during the next two years, and promise you the same impartial enforcement of all laws.
